

The five factors and 26 variables of socio-economic status<sup>8</sup>

Economic stability	Social mobility	Cultural similarity	Vulnerability	Child care
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>average value of homes</li> <li>median income (aged 15+)</li> <li>income disparity (ratio of people earning $20,000 or less to those making $50,000+ a year)</li> <li>receiving government transfer payments to families (e.g. social assistance)</li> <li>population aged 15+ with no certificate, diploma or degree</li> <li>population aged 15+ employed in managerial/ professional occupations</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>ratio of dependent children (under 15) and seniors to working adults (aged 16 to 64)</li> <li>divorced/separated</li> <li>lone parent families</li> <li>seniors (65+) living alone</li> <li>average dwelling size (number of rooms)</li> <li>people who own their homes</li> <li>low-income (low income cutoff set by Stats Can)</li> <li>in-migration rate (into Alberta from other parts of Canada in a one-year period)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>immigrants (from outside Canada) in the five-year period prior to the 2006 census</li> <li>British/ French ethnicity</li> <li>foreign-born</li> <li>use public transit to get to work</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>married couples with more than three children in family</li> <li>homes needing major repairs</li> <li>unemployment rate</li> <li>First Nations/ Métis/ Inuit</li> <li>adults (aged 15+) doing more than 60 hours of unpaid housework per week</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>children under age 5 in total population</li> <li>female labour participation rate</li> <li>adults (aged 15+) doing more than 60 hours of unpaid child care per week)</li> </ul>

Variables are based on percentages except where otherwise indicated (i.e. average value of homes).

The five factors and 26 variables of socio-economic status<sup>8</sup>

Economic stability	Social mobility	Cultural similarity	Vulnerability	Child care
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>average value of homes</li> <li>median income (aged 15+)</li> <li>income disparity (ratio of people earning $20,000 or less to those making $50,000+ a year)</li> <li>receiving government transfer payments to families (e.g. social assistance)</li> <li>population aged 15+ with no certificate, diploma or degree</li> <li>population aged 15+ employed in managerial/ professional occupations</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>ratio of dependent children (under 15) and seniors to working adults (aged 16 to 64)</li> <li>divorced/separated</li> <li>lone parent families</li> <li>seniors (65+) living alone</li> <li>average dwelling size (number of rooms)</li> <li>people who own their homes</li> <li>low-income (low income cutoff set by Stats Can)</li> <li>in-migration rate (into Alberta from other parts of Canada in a one-year period)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>immigrants (from outside Canada) in the five-year period prior to the 2006 census</li> <li>British/ French ethnicity</li> <li>foreign-born</li> <li>use public transit to get to work</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>married couples with more than three children in family</li> <li>homes needing major repairs</li> <li>unemployment rate</li> <li>First Nations/ Métis/ Inuit</li> <li>adults (aged 15+) doing more than 60 hours of unpaid housework per week</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>children under age 5 in total population</li> <li>female labour participation rate</li> <li>adults (aged 15+) doing more than 60 hours of unpaid child care per week)</li> </ul>

Variables are based on percentages except where otherwise indicated (i.e. average value of homes).